Are you curious about how groups work? Do you work with groups in a social work, health, education, business or voluntary setting? Do you want to learn more about yourself and to develop your skills in therapeutic groups and work teams?

If any of these apply, then this is the course for you!

It takes place on fortnightly Fridays and two Saturdays over the Spring and Summer terms, between 15th January and 10th July 2010.

Accredited as an Introductory Course (fulfilling entry requirement for qualifying training) by the Institute of Group Analysis, the premier institute in the UK for the training of group psychotherapists.
