

FULL MEMBERSHIP

Full members must be qualified and registered with the Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC) as an Art therapist/ Art psychotherapist.

We strongly advise that members belong to a trade union which is affiliated to the Trade Union Congress and recommends membership of Unite for Art Therapists working in the NHS or practising independently, UNISON for those working in Social Services and Prospect for members employed in the prison service.

Benefits:

As a full member you will get access to the members-only section of the BAAT website, where you will find help, advice and resources to help you in your professional career, including packs such as 'Note writing and the law', 'Off the Peg Audit Handbook' and various guidelines including Covid-10 Guidance & Resources.

Publications and news updates

BAAT members now have access to the following BAAT publications:

- The International Journal of Art Therapy (IJAT): Inscope is produced quarterly and at present published online only because of COVID-19.
- Currently members also have free access to the American Journal of Art Therapy and the Canadian Art Therapy Journal.
- The members' magazine Newsbriefing is produced twice a year (currently published online only because of COVID-19).
- Regular email bulletins with news and events.

BAAT Continuing Professional Development (CPD) courses

The BAAT offers CPD/short courses and conferences at discounted rates for Full members. Upcoming courses and events can be found on the BAAT website: www.baat.org/Courses-Conferences

Free Zoom lectures/seminars

BAAT provides regular Zoom lectures on practice and professional issues which BAAT members can join for free. You can access the recordings of past BAAT Zoom lectures (2020/2021) e.g., working with children during COVID, Online Art Therapy, Taking Art Therapy Outdoors, Black Lives Matter etc. within the members' area on the BAAT website.

BAAT Forums www.baatforums.org

As a Full member you have access to your BAAT regional group and the BAAT special interest groups (SIG) on the BAAT Forums. This is an excellent way to network, and they offer free or very low cost Continuing Professional Development (CPD) activities to their members.

BAAT Rewards Scheme

This enables you access to discounts at major supermarkets and discount on car, home, travel insurance amongst other benefits which should help you offset a large part of your membership fee.

Additionally, Howden's offer discounted insurance rates for BAAT members and Jessica Kingsley Publishers offers 30% discount on JKP Arts therapies books.

- Please email your application to: info@baat.org

Please note: applications returned by post may be delayed, as BAAT staff is mainly working remotely.

Once your application has been processed, you will receive an email confirmation with login details to access the members' area. Please go to 'my employment details' and amend the information you wish to display on the BAAT directory (only displayed within the members' area). If you wish to be listed as a BAAT Private Practitioner and/or BAAT Supervisor on the global 'Find an Art Therapist' search on the BAAT website, then this is a separate application procedure. You can find information around this in the members' area on the BAAT website under 'Private Practice'.
