

ASSOCIATE AND CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

The British Association of Art Therapists is a dynamic organisation and art therapy is a growing profession. The Association welcomes members from outside the profession and can offer:

- Creative continuing professional development courses at discounted rates (when these are open to people who are not art therapists)
- Art therapy events in your area through our regional groups
- Regular e.bulletins with news and events
- Access to the BAAT research library
- Access to the AHP Rewards scheme which offers discounts and cashback at major retailers.

Benefits

As an associate member you will also receive the 'International Journal of Art Therapy: Inscape', which is published quarterly online and mailed twice a year as a double issue, and 'Newsbriefing', the bi-annual newsletter of the Association and our frequent e-bulletins with news of jobs, events, courses, etc.

There are three categories of associate membership:

- Individual UK (not qualified Art Therapists)	£95 per annum
- Overseas (qualified and not qualified Art Therapists)	£100 per annum
- Corporate	£170 per annum

Please send your application to our office address 24 – 27 White Lion Street, London, N1 9PD or e-mail scans to bettina@baat.org

Data Protection:

By signing up to a BAAT membership, you are giving consent for BAAT to send you information and publications, which are detailed on your membership benefits and to hold your information according to the new GDPR guidelines (May 2018). We will refresh your consent when you renew your membership

Please note that if you do not renew your membership on time and it is lapsed, all your BAAT membership data will be deleted, as we will no longer have your authorisation to keep it. This means that if you wish to re-join BAAT, you will need to start a new application as we are not able to reactivate expired memberships.

This will have implications on our ability to confirm past payments for membership for tax purposes: if you leave BAAT, we will no longer hold any of your details on our database.
