

Art Therapy

with Marian Liebmann
28-29th Sept 2019

These courses will take place at Studio Upstairs, Bristol, overlooking the floating harbour. Attend one or both days. All art materials provided.

Art Therapy & Anger

Sat 28 Sept 2018, 10.00 – 4.00

This course will take participants through some of the art therapy processes that can help with work on anger and anger management. It is modelled on the courses developed by the facilitator in her work in the Inner City Mental Health Service, Bristol, and has application to anyone wanting to look at their own anger, as well as those working with angry clients.

Art Therapy & Conflict

Sun 29 Sept 2018, 10.00 – 4.00

Conflict is an emotive subject. This day course is about finding new ways to look at it. There will be a variety of practical art exercises to gain insights into different aspects of conflict, conflict resolution and mediation. Participants will acquire a greater awareness of different aspects of conflict, and how to work with conflict constructively.

Dr Marian Liebmann has worked in art therapy with offenders, women's groups, community groups, and for 19 years in the Central Community Mental Health Team in Bristol, where she developed work with clients on anger and conflict issues. She lectures on art therapy at several universities in the UK and Europe. She also works in restorative justice, mediation and conflict resolution, and has run workshops on art, conflict and anger in many countries, including Europe, USA, Latin America and Africa. She has written/edited twelve books, including Art Therapy and Anger and Arts Approaches to Conflict. She now has a small private supervision practice and travels widely for workshops and conferences.
