

Practical Workshop for Art Therapists and Students of Art Therapy

BODY IMAGE - Using Clay as a Tool for Reflection

19 January 2019

A morning of practical hands on clay making and discussion facilitated by Dr Trisha Crocker to consider the client /patient point of view and the ways in which clay can be used as a tool for reflection of body-image. The logistics and ways of using clay in an art therapy environment will be discussed.

These workshops are limited to 6 and allow for the practical and reflective work employed by participants for my recent doctorate based on the above title.

10.00 am Arrival - Coffee/Tea
10.20 Introduction to the process
10.45 Practical work with clay
11.45 Clear up and Coffee break
12.00 Discussion among group
12.45 Outstanding questions to Trisha
1 pm End

Your clay images can be fired if you choose and may be picked up at a later date at no extra charge

Workshop including materials - £85 per person

CPD certificates on request

Book now to reserve your space at trisha@trishacrocker.co.uk

The Pottery, Highmoor Cross, Henley on Thames, RG9 5DS, Oxfordshire